

24th June 2022

Dear Year 6 Parents/Carers,

It has been a pleasure meeting you all at the individual meetings which have taken place over the past two weeks. Next week are two of the biggest events in our transition calendar, with the information evening on Monday 27th June and the Induction Day on Friday 1st July. Details of both events can be found below.

We are also pleased to be able to share with you the Transition Week booking form, as well as details on Year 7 instrumental lessons. Please read the following information carefully.

Transition Week Registration

We hope that as many of you as possible are able to attend our transition week from Monday 22nd – Friday 26th August. Daily timings are from 10am-2pm, and each day will feature a fun mix of activities to help students build friendships as well as prepare them for the start of Year 7.

You do not need to commit to every day during the week, however, we do ask that if you book a day that this is the whole day. Please click on the link below to book the days you would your child(ren) to attend.

If you were unable to attend an individual meeting, or you did attend but did not have all of the below documents to bring with you, please ensure you bring them to the information evening.

- Your child's birth certificate
- Proof of address: this could be a council tax bill or utility bill
- Proof of name change documentation
- Proof of adoption/parental responsibility if applicable

- Data declaration form
- Horizons Home use Agreement

Induction Day

We are busy finalising plans for a fun packed day on 1st July. A reminder of timings for drop off and pick up are below:

Arrival: 8:30-8:45

Please do not arrive any earlier than 8:30am on the induction day as we will be welcoming the rest of the Academy prior to this for the start of their day, and we will not be able to welcome you before this time.

Please arrive and enter the Academy via the internet café to the left of the main reception entrance. Parents are welcome to come in and register their child but we ask that they then depart so as not to congest the arrival/registration space.

Departure: 14:45-15:00

Students can either be dismissed to make their own way home or can be collected from the sports hall via the internet café as per the morning drop off. Please ensure you have indicated your dismissal preference on your induction day consent form.

Students who will be going home with a sibling who already attends the Academy can wait in the Sports Hall until their sibling has been dismissed from check out at the end of the school day where they will then be asked to go to the Sports Hall to collect them.
